

Slip a few Prince Albert smokes into your system!

You've heard many an earful about the Prince Albert patented process that cuts out bite and parch and lets you smoke your fill without a comeback! Stake your bank roll that it proves out every hour of the day. Prince Albert has always been sold without coupons or premiums. We prefer to give quality!

There's sport smoking a pipe or rolling your own, but you know that you've got to have the right tobacco! We tell you Prince Albert will bang the doors wide open for you to come in on a good time firing up every little so often, without a regret! You'll feel like your smoke past has been wasted and will be sorry you cannot back up for a fresh start.

You swing on this say-so like it was a tip to a thousand-dollar bill! It's worth that in happiness and contentment to you, to every man who knows what can be gotten out of a chummy jimmy pipe or a makin's cigarette with Prince Albert for "packing"!

red tin

THE Prince Albert tin, and in fact, every Prince Albert package, has a real message-to-you on its reverse side. You'll read—"Process Patented July 30th, 1907." That means that the United States Government has granted a patent on the process by which Prince Albert is made. And by which tongue bite and throat parch are cut out! Everywhere tobacco is sold you'll find Prince Albert awaiting you in its handy red tin. It's a handy tin, too, handsome and half-pound tin humidor and in that clever crystal-glass humidor, with sponge-moistener top that keeps the tobacco in such fine condition—always!

VERMONT STATE FAIR WHITE RIVER JUNCTION

Sept. 12, 13, 14, 15

APPEAL FROM COMMISSIONER TITCOMB.

Commissioner Titcomb has just been mailing to the holders of fishing and hunting licenses of last year a circular letter explaining the fish and game laws, and especially the condition in the game laws about which there seems to be more or less misunderstanding. He closes with an appeal for cooperation and urges the closing of small tributary streams which contain trout that do not ordinarily attain a legal size until they have dropped down into the larger waters. The present law authorizes the commissioner to close such streams, but it cannot be done without the written consent of the owners. Short term closing of streams has not been found advantageous. The commissioner thinks it is bad policy to change the laws every two years, one of the reasons for which being the fact that it takes about two years for the public to become accustomed to changes, especially as they apply to open and close seasons.

The commissioner closes his circular by stating that any persons desiring to be kept on the mailing list use the postal card which he enclosed for their present address. It is his intention to send a copy of the biennial report, now in course of preparation, to every person who takes advantage of the postal card to forward his address, and the number of cards received will be his guide as to the number of reports to be printed.

VERMONT NEWS.

STARTS TURTLE RANCH.

The Hon. John W. Titcomb, State fish and game commissioner, has started near his place in Lyndon Center a turtle ranch, and has five different specimens, collected in this State. He has a Lake Champlain sturgeon six feet and six inches long which he intends to exhibit at the State fair.

VERMONT APPLES WIN.

S. E. Noonan of North Ferrisburg, Vt., was awarded third prize in group one at the 22nd annual convention of the International Apple Shippers' association held Friday at Niagara Falls, N. Y. The Virginia State Horticultural society of Winchester, Va., was awarded the sweepstakes with which goes the president's cup.

WOMAN COMMITS SUICIDE.

Mrs. Mary Woodworth, aged 67 years, was found dead Sunday at the home of her son, Fred Hamlet, in Enosburg Center, where she had resided for some months. When found she had a trunk strap around her neck, and this was hitched to the knob of a closed door. In this manner she strangled herself.

DIVER SUSTAINS INJURIES.

Edward Murray, the son of Dr. E. F. Murray of Burlington, while diving at Queen City park, near Burlington, dove 22 feet from the top of a float into four feet of water, striking on his head and being knocked unconscious. Other swimmers pulled him on to the float and got him home. The raft had floated in shore over night and young Murray supposed he was diving into about 12 feet of water.

AUTO PLUNGES INTO RIVER.

As Glen Rowell was returning to South Royalton Saturday afternoon with Mrs. James Rowell and Miss Ida Noyes as passengers, he lost control of his car near the bridge above Fred Nelson's and the machine plunged off the bank into the river. Miss Noyes was quite seriously injured, receiving a deep scalp wound and bruises upon the body. The other two occupants of the car were practically uninjured. The cause of the accident was defective steering gear.

CHILD HORRIBLY MANGLED.

A shocking accident occurred at the home of George Hislop who lives on the river shore about one mile over the line from North Alburg. His little son, Foster, aged little more than two years had gone out to the outfield and had fallen asleep among the grain. Mr. Hislop who was reaping the oats and did not see his son, ran into him with the binder which severed the little fellow's left arm just above the elbow.

CIVIL WAR VETERANS DINE.

Four members of Co. A. of the 9th regiment of Vermont volunteers met on Friday at the Hotel Lyndon, three of them not having seen one another since the company was mustered out 51 years ago. They enjoyed an hour of reminiscences over an excellent dinner and agreed to hold another reunion next year. The men were Corp. E. G. Minkler of Fairbanks, Corp. J. S. Moore of McIndoes, Corp. O. C. Clary of Lyndon Center and H. S. Powers of Lyndonville.

ASSISTANT JUDGE INJURED.

Judge Charles A. Gardyne, assistant judge of the Franklin county court, was the victim of an automobile accident which occurred in St. Albans about 6:25 o'clock Sunday evening. Judge Gardyne was knocked down by an automobile driven by H. F. Delisle. The judge lies in the St. Albans hospital suffering from two broken ribs, cuts about the head, and on one hip with the possibility that he may have received internal injuries. There were no developments that revealed internal injuries but the attending physician is not yet able to say that the judge escaped internal hurts.

ROBBED ON C. V. TRACKS.

Early Sunday morning John McLean of Waterbury staggered into Barre police headquarters and told the officers that he had been robbed of $50. Disclosures which he made prompted Grand Juror William Wishart to dispatch three officers on a raid Monday forenoon with the result that Mrs. Enrichetta Ambrosini was arrested on a charge of selling liquor illegally and held at a sum of $550 for her appearance at a hearing held Tuesday. Officers John W. Dineen and J. S. Murley and Constable G. L. Morris confiscated two barrels of ale, a quantity of bottled beer and whiskey at the woman's premises. McLean told the police that he drank 18 glasses of beer at Ambrosini's place late Saturday night. Soon after he left the house two men caught up with him on the C. V. tracks, accosted him roughly and then laid him out with a sharp blow on the head. When he recovered consciousness a roll of bills amounting to more than $40 was missing.

GOV. FLETCHER'S

Campaign Methods!

Senator Page is receiving a large number of letters insisting that he meet Gov. Fletcher on his own level and attack him on his many vulnerable points. ij

He has received offers of facts concerning both the public and private record of the Governor which are claimed to be damaging in the extreme.

In every case these offers have been declined with the assurance that Senator Page would not descend to this method of campaigning.

Gov. Fletcher seems to believe that in order to build up his own senatorial fortunes he must tear down and destroy Senator Page.

He forgets that Senator Page has always lived in Vermont—that commencing in 1869 as a Representative from Hyde Park, re-elected in 1870; elected a State Senator in 1874; a member of the Republican State Committee from 1872 to 1889, and its Chairman from 1885 to 1889; as Bank Examiner from 1884 to 1888; as Governor from 1890 to 1892; and as United States Senator 1903 to 1916, he has been continuously in the lime-light in public service to such an extent that the people of Vermont have formed an opinion as to his integrity and ability which cannot be undermined and destroyed in a few brief weeks of political advertising.

Gov. Fletcher forgets that Governor Page has been dealing with the people of Vermont in a business way all these years and that his reputation for integrity and square dealing, whether good or bad, cannot be changed in a day.

Gov. Fletcher will be permitted to enjoy a complete monopoly of his Indiana methods of campaigning. Senator Page will not descend to this level.

Gov. Fletcher will find that Senator Page's many Vermont friends will be prompt to resent his abuse and excellent judges say that the Senator's vindication is as certain to come at the primary September 12th as the sun is to rise and set.

Senator Page is now receiving many letters assuring him that the reaction against Governor Fletcher's questionable campaign methods has already set in but that as it may, the Senator is quite content to trust his vindication to the people of Vermont. They know that his business interests are all in Vermont; that every fiber of his being is loyal to his native state and always will be; that despite the malicious attempt to injure the Bank of which he is President, it is an institution of which Vermont is justly proud.

They know that his calfskin business has brought hundreds of thousands of dollars to Vermont, and that because of this business another industry in which Vermont leads has been added to the list.

Whether Vermonters are or are not proud of their former Governor and Junior United States Senator, may in the mind of Gov. Fletcher be a matter of doubt. That Gov. Fletcher has, by his attempts to blacken the character of Senator Page, taken the surest possible method to determine that fact, no sane man can doubt. Senator Page is quite willing to await the arrival of Sept. 12th to receive Vermont's verdict relative to the introduction of Gov. Fletcher's Indiana methods into Vermont State politics.

A RICH AFFIDAVIT

As a sample of the campaign methods by which Gov. Fletcher hopes to reach the United States Senate, it may be stated there is now being slyly circulated through the state an affidavit made by one Arthur M. Rich—a discharged clerk of Senator Page—to the effect that when this young man was in Senator Page's official employ in Washington the Senator took from him a portion of his salary, and put it in his own pocket.

Letters have already been received by Senator Page calling his attention to this precious concoction in the counties of Orleans, Essex and Windham and the probabilities are that it has been circulated throughout the state. Senator Page has twice sent to the office of Williams & Smith of Newport for a copy of the Rich affidavit, but has been unsuccessful in securing it. That the affidavit is absolutely false the Senator states unqualifiedly and that indisputable documentary proof to show its falsity is now in his hands.

This affidavit has a most interesting history. The call sent out to young Rich to come to Vermont to make this affidavit was sent by one of the firm of Williams & Smith. Of this fact, there is absolute proof. It was executed in the law office of Williams & Smith at Newport, the political headquarters of Allen M. Fletcher in Orleans County. The affidavit was sworn to before B. M. Spooner, a clerk in the office of Williams & Smith.

Incidentally it might be mentioned that the senior partner of this Newport law firm is Bank Commissioner Williams, whose arraignment of the management of Senator Page's Hyde Park bank recently occupied nearly a full page in every paper in Vermont and cost Gov. Fletcher over $3,000—enough to buy a good farm.
